Ferieboligen is a beautifully situated limestone house from 15th century, situated on a hilltop with panoramic views to the Pyrenees. The most impressive detail is the indoor swimming pool which is surrounded by stone walls in lower floor of the house - a unique solution. A couple of years ago, an outdoor swimming pool was added to the many facilities of the house. It is fenced for the protection of young children.

The 450 m2 in total divided on three floors has been renovated with respect for the rustic style and offers a fully equipped kitchen, a beautiful curved living room with fireplace, six double bedrooms and a triple room, all with bathroom ensuite. As mentioned, there is indoor swimming pool, which allows swimming all year round.

The kitchen is equipped with two refrigerators, one with freezer, ceramic hotplates, oven, microwave, dishwasher, juice presses, coffee maker, toaster, blender, toaster, and a paella pan for 15-20 persons.

The house has plenty of facilities, eg. washing machine, table tennis, billiard tables and playground. For families, there are two cots and a high chair available.

The house is privately situated and surrounded by a lovely garden with covered terrace and a large lawn. As mentioned, there is a playground for smaller children.
