Ferieboligen - Luxury holiday home surrounded by greenery and tranquillity

Ferieboligen is located in breathtaking natural surroundings, in the middle of the Lluçanès forests (Barcelona). The home can accommodate up to 7(+3) guests. Built more than two centuries ago, the house maintains the essence of its past while benefiting from modern comforts. It has been carefully restored to accommodate a family, a group of friends or a team.

Ferieboligen has been totally renovated in keeping with the traditional Catalan architectural style. Design and comfort are present in every tiny detail, from the furniture - with reclaimed pieces from the former farmhouse - to the high-quality cotton sheets and technology in the household appliances. You will feel totally at home here.

The outside areas are simply perfect! There is a stunning pool area with comfy sun loungers - the perfect spot to enjoy the Catalan sun. You can also enjoy outdoor meals on the lovely terrace whilst enjoying the spectacular views of the Lluçanès plateau.

As for the inside of the house, the same can be said: simply perfect! The house includes three very nicely decorated bedrooms (2 double rooms and 1 tripple room), two modern bathrooms, a comfy living space and an open, fully equipped kitchen and dining space.

Ferieboligen is surrounded by natural landscapes that are perfect for walking or cycling. In the medieval city of Vic, 17 km away, visitors can take guided tours of its historic quarter and discover its museums. And Barcelona, just 80 km away, offers all kinds of cultural sights and activities.

The kind owners of Ferieboligen offer a catering service tailored to suit your needs. If you prefer, you can also enjoy the delicious local cuisine provided by the area's most prestigious chefs, some of whom hold Michelin stars. The owners would be happy to recommend the best restaurants in the area based on your particular tastes.

Very close to Ferieboligen you can find shops ranging from the most traditional stalls in Vic's ancient market to the most exclusive boutiques in Barcelona. If you are looking for fashion, design, crafts or simply local produce, you can find it all just a short distance from here.
