At the same time, the size of the property offers fantastic opportunities for a wonderful holiday, regardless of whether you are the type who spends the holiday in or by the pool, the type who likes to compete a little with table tennis, table football or billiards, or the active type who likes a hike or maybe even a bike ride.

Spacious and full of possibilities

The property is so large that it has its own three hiking trails, which are nicely marked in three colors and connect you with some of the many local hiking trails that explore the many fantastic views the surrounding mountains offer. By bike you have the opportunity to climb the local "Alpe d'Huez", as the nearby mountain road is the test of strength for the local cyclists to the "Rasos de Peguera"

On the property, the children can get close to the animals. In the paddock they can feed the two donkeys and the pony, and in the garden there are chickens, most often in the chicken coop, but sometimes they also just walk around in the bushes. The super-sweet owners Jordi and Constanca also live on the farm, and are always available, but of course also respect your privacy.

The property is situated on a slope, so Jordi and Constanca have access to their terrace and garden behind the house, while the three holiday homes face the garden area with all the facilities seen in the pictures.
