Ferieboligen - Characterful Townhouse Near the Costa Brava Beaches

The House

Located in the historic heart of Pals, one of the most beautiful medieval villages on the Costa Brava, Ferieboligen is a charming and spacious holiday home that blends authentic Catalan character with modern comfort. Carefully restored, this traditional stone townhouse offers a warm and welcoming atmosphere—ideal for families or friends looking to enjoy culture, gastronomy, and the nearby Mediterranean coast.

The house features three comfortable double bedrooms (with the possibility of additional beds), two well-appointed bathrooms, and a fully equipped kitchen ideal for relaxed self-catering. Modern amenities include air conditioning, Wi-Fi, television, DVD player, washing machine, dryer, and a computer with internet access, ensuring a comfortable stay throughout the year.

Parking is convenient, with one private parking space next to the house and additional parking within walking distance.

One of the highlights of Ferieboligen is its exceptionally spacious rooftop terrace, offering open views across the Empordà countryside towards the distant coastline. This inviting outdoor space is perfect for breakfast in the morning sun, leisurely lunches, or long summer evenings with a glass of local wine under the stars.

Pals & Local Atmosphere

Step outside and you are immediately immersed in the unique atmosphere of Pals, with its cobbled streets, historic towers, artisan shops, and excellent restaurants all within easy walking distance. The village offers a wonderful balance of heritage, culture, and relaxed Mediterranean living.

Beaches & the Costa Brava

The house enjoys excellent proximity to the Costa Brava beaches, with the wide sandy shores of Platja de Pals and other nearby beaches just a short drive or cycle away. These beaches are ideal for swimming, sunbathing, water sports, and long coastal walks, backed by dunes and pine forests and overlooking the clear Mediterranean Sea.

Nearby Villages & Gastronomy

The surrounding area is rich in character and discovery. Nearby medieval villages such as Peratallada and Palau-Sator make wonderful excursions. Peratallada enchants with its beautifully preserved stone streets and lively atmosphere, while Palau-Sator offers a quieter charm centred around its historic castle tower.

Both villages are well known for their excellent restaurants, where traditional Catalan dishes and refined Mediterranean cuisine are served in atmospheric historic settings—perfect for leisurely lunches or memorable evenings out.

Cultural Day Trips

Ferieboligen is also perfectly positioned for cultural exploration. Figueres, approximately 45 km away, is home to the famous Dalí Theatre-Museum, an immersive and unforgettable experience created by Salvador Dalí himself.

The elegant city of Girona, also around 45 km away, offers a beautifully preserved old town, ancient city walls, a magnificent cathedral, and a vibrant dining and shopping scene—ideal for a relaxed day trip.

For a full-day excursion, Barcelona lies approximately 130 km from Pals, rewarding visitors with world-famous architecture, outstanding museums, lively neighbourhoods, Mediterranean beaches, and an unmistakable urban energy.

Whether you are seeking beach days, medieval villages, outstanding cuisine, or inspiring cultural excursions, Ferieboligen provides an exceptional base for discovering the very best of the Costa Brava and Catalonia.
