Ferieboligen is a very authentic and lovely holiday house divided into 5 different apartments in the most beautiful surroundings, you can imagine. Here are, among others, a large pool, a spa / wellness area and a fantastic view.

Ferieboligen lies, as the name suggests, in the mountains. This beauty of a property is located in the lower slopes of the Pyrenees. To get to the house you have to follow some small winding roads, which means that it lies in completely private, quiet and beautiful surroundings. If you like fresh air and wonderful scenery, there are no other houses that fit better than this. Ferieboligen is divided into five apartments, which are rented separately. Here there are respectively an apartment for 8 persons, one apartment for 4 persons and two apartments for two people.

In this apartment, Ferieboligen, where there is room for 4 people, there are two double rooms with two double beds in each. This is perfect for a family. Both bedrooms have their own en suite bathroom.

This apartment has a size of 100 m². Overall it is arranged very authentic, and it is clear, that there is great respect for the original materials and structures. There are many small details that give a true Catalan atmosphere. The apartment has a small cozy sitting area with a fireplace and a TV, where you can read a book inside the shadows. Besides this there is a nice little dining room with a beautiful wooden table. Finally there is a kitchen with oven, dishwasher and other things. The apartment has its own patio area outside, where you can sit in the shade when it gets too hot under the sun. Here can the fresh mountain air and the quiet atmosphere be enjoyed. The best thing about the apartment is almost the breathtaking views that can be enjoyed in all directions. You can, especially in the evening hours, experience a wonderful calmness that is unique to the mountains.

There are two shared facilities that particularly stand out. Firstly there is the wonderful pool of an entire 40 m², which has a fantastic view over the mountains and woods. Secondly, there is a very special spa / wellness area, which includes the following:

- "The Flotarium" - is a special tub in which the water has a density equal to the Dead Sea - it means that one almost floats on top of the water. This is said to be extremely pleasant and relaxing.
- "Turkish bath" - is a kind of sauna where the temperature varies from 20 ° C to 50 ° C, depending on which height you are in. The relative humidity is at 99% and therefore there will be the typical "fog".
- "Sauna" - normal sauna, where hot rocks warms up the room to 80-90 ° C
- Indoor pool and massage chair.
