Live extraordinarily scenic at the end of a mountain road with plenty of facilities for a relaxing holiday!

If you want a holiday in very private surroundings but still wishes to stay in a holiday home of high standard - then Masia de Vilena (for 14 people) is just the thing for you. The drive is fairly long on the gravel road with some difficult passages. If possible, we recommend a high car (e.g. SUV). The reward is stunning. A completely isolated house in natural surroundings with the most beautiful mountain and forest view in all directions.

The outdoor areas:

Nature, relaxation and privacy is really keywords here. This is due to the fact that the house lies in a relatively high position, providing stunning views - especially from the pool area. It is also very easy to relax on the property: The lovely swimming pool will cool you down - even during the middle of the day when the sun is high in the sky and blazing. The peacefulness and privacy is due to the situation of the holiday home and that there are no disturbing neighbors nearby.

The outdoor areas on the property is something special. The garden is very large and varied. It is filled with trees (including cherry trees), plants and relatively large grass areas. Several places in the garden, makes it possible to sit in the shade and relax. , The beautiful pool area lies on a small plateau, providing the best view of the property. The pool has a size of 32 m², and there are stairs all the way into the water. This renders an opportunity to relax and the kids can also use their energy and time in the cooling water. On another plateau above the pool, there are sun loungers and parasols - and with a brilliant view.

Elsewhere in the garden, there is a relatively large football field with two goals. There is also a barbecue, which is ideal during the hot summer evenings.

Private location on top of a mountain!

Masia Vileña is a historical mountain house constructed by limestone and furnished traditionally. The house is warm, so do not expect that all details are perfect, and if this is fine, the house is the ideal base for groups who love nature and prefer staying in a place with a lot to do, rather than making a lot of excursions. Not that excursions are impossible, you just need to calculate the 25 minutes to get down to the C-14 highway in Alcover (where you also find shops). From there, it is very easy to visit Reus, Tarragona and the beaches, for instance in Cambrils.

The indoor areas:

On the ground floor, there is a living room area, a dining table and a kitchen. The kitchen is well equipped with many facilities and tools among others dishwasher, microwave, toaster, kettle and enough room for making a huge meal. You find two different exits to outdoor terrace areas.

The design of the holiday house is traditional with antique furniture, and there are many small, authentic details in the holiday home. They are distributed in the 3 different sitting rooms.

Another cosy detail about the authentic structure of the house is that it has several different levels. In one part of the house you find five of the six bedrooms, situated in two different levels, two triple rooms and two double rooms. Common to them all is that they are very spacious. They share two bedrooms.

By a separate stairway, you can access the second floor suite, which is a room with a double bed, a sofa corner and a beautiful walk-in bathroom with bathtub. On top of it, it has access to a private terrace.

Finally on the third floor, there is one big common room. There are sofas with a TV, pool table and table football. Especially when it is dark outside, this room is a great place to have fun.

As mentioned before, the property is situated at the end of a long gravel road with some difficult parts, depending a bit whether it has rained a lot or not, as they try to improve it continuously. By our most recent visit in 2023, we timed the drive from the paved road to the house to 17 minutes. We arrived in a Opel Mokka "mini-SUV".
