Enjoy your vacation in a child-friendly small vacation house in Catalonia, surrounded by garden and fields and with a lot of activities possible. The house can be dated back to XVI century, but now emerges restored with respect for the original details.

From the main entrance you enter the big common room with open kitchen with micro wave and dishwasher, dining table and sofa corner with TV, HIFI and DVD. From the common room there is access to three rooms, respectively 1 double room and 2 triple rooms. A sleeping couch makes two more persons optional. Furthermore, the house has two bathrooms.

Outside, there is a lot of space for playing. There are swings, a table tennis and a small round pool for refreshment in the hot summer days. From the summer 2009, the new modern swimming pool will be ready. Below the house, there is a football ground. Also there is a barbecue.

The house is situated within walking distance from a cosy village with bakery, greenshop, restaurant and a bar with internet. In the village, moreover, there is a public swimming pool.

Is the metropolis Barcelona tempting?

Most our holiday homes are situated 1-1½ hour's drive from Barcelona. The metropolis is one of the most exiting and visited cities of Europe - well deserved! You can either visit Barcelona during your stay, or you can combine your trip, so you stay in Barcelona some nights before or after your vacation in the the Catalan countryside.

Du to this demand, we now offer a selection of centrally located Barcelona holiday apartments, so we can help you making a very nice combined vacation.
