Cosy holiday home with many facilities for the children

Ferieboligen - Ferieboligen is a holiday home in very beautiful surroundings and with excellent common areas. It is a perfect holiday home for a group with children who wishes a spacious outdoor area, a lot of possibilities for activities and likes to meet other children and families by the pool as the common ground is shared with two other holiday homes on the premises.

The greatest assets of Ferieboligen are the good possibilities for activities. The garden is large and ends in a little forest area, where you can walk or explore. The garden has football goal, a small playing ground, a wonderful fenced swimming pool area with good furniture and in the far end of the garden is a small area with rabbits, goats and a peacock. An area which most certainly will attract the children and add to many nice holiday memories. There is furthermore an activity-house with table tennis, table football and a playing corner - wonderful if you need a bit of shadow in the warm summer days. In a shadowy corner by the entrance to the forest area are furthermore a garden hammock and a hammock. This is the obvious place to go with a good book during the siesta, when the sun is at its highest.

The holiday home is situated in the beautiful rustic main house that is made of large boulders. The main house is divided into two separate and identical holiday homes. The accommodation is spread over two floors with the main family rooms on the lower floor. Here is a cozy living room with traditional Catalan furniture and a dining area with a fitted kitchen along the back wall. There are modern facilities like dishwasher, microwave, stove etc. There is also a washing machine and WI-FI in the home. There is a bathroom on the lower floor. The four bedrooms of the house are all on the first floor together with another bathroom. There are two double bedrooms with double beds, a double room with two single beds and a cozy single room. Each room is decorated with beautiful antique furniture in traditional Catalan style.

The house is situated in the Plana de Vic region. The regional capital, Vic, lies 22 km. from Las Casas de Arcos and has a rather good market every Tuesday and Saturday between 7 am and 2 pm. All imaginable products can be bought here: delicacies from local producers, clothes, pots and living animals. It is absolutely worthwhile to visit the market in Vic. Moreover Vic is a cosy town with a lot of good stores. It is a must to visit one of the two really good sausage makers in the town, who deliver their Spanish sausages to special stores all over Spain and quite a few in the rest of the world. You can make a nice walk around the town in about 4 hours.

There are 90 km. to Barcelona, so it is an obvious choice to reserve a day or two for a visit the bustling capital of Catalonia. The villages Rupit and Tavertet are also something you must see when living in the Vic area. Both are very charming and Rupit, which is built on rocks is attractive for children as well as grown ups. Bring swimming suits as it is possible to have a bath in the river below the village. If you want a day on the beach, you can either go to Barcelona, which has a 4.5 km. long beach in front of the city or drive to Costa Brava, which is 115 km. away. (in this case you could finish the day in Girona, which is a very fine city)

We are convinced that you will have a really good holiday in las Casas de Arcos, which we find is a veritable pearl for families with children.
